Wine & footy to help homeless

WHAT do Olympic rower Amber Halliday, world champion cyclist Shane Kelly, Minister Patrick Conlon and UK wine writer Matthew Jukes have in common?

A love of wine and humanity, it would seem.

They will be at tonight's launch of South Australia's wine industry fundraising event - Touch Wine 2009 - at Aria

Restaurant. The Hutt Street Centre Touch Wine event fundraiser is supported by South Australia's wine industry to raise money for Adelaide's homeless.

Each November, Adelaide's southern parklands are transformed into a touch footy frenzy, with more than 700 wine industry personnel battling it out on the fields for the coveted Touch Wine trophy.
